Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 938 by deleting all language after the caption and substituting:

WHEREAS, it is fitting that this General Assembly should recognize songs of historic significance that have influenced this State; and

WHEREAS, John Newton struggled against the temptation of profits earned by merchants and slavers and uncertainty as to his religious belief during the first two decades of his life; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Newton's life, rife with "dangers, toils and snares," frequently made him feel as though he had been miraculously spared, despite his struggles; and

WHEREAS, he experienced a spiritual conversion after his ship was caught in a severe storm in 1748; he began reading the Bible and other religious literature during the remainder of his return journey to England; and

WHEREAS, he worked over the next sixteen years to become ordained as a priest with the church and was finally successful in 1764; and

WHEREAS, he became well-known both for his pastoral care and beliefs, and was offered the parish in Olney, England; and

WHEREAS, during his first year serving in Olney, he wrote the hymn "Amazing Grace," which became one of the most celebrated songs in modern history; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Newton's conversion from a merchant and slaver to a man of faith led him to speak out against slavery, and although many of England's large port cities greatly benefited from the slave trade, Mr. Newton and other social critics began to speak out against the practice; and

WHEREAS, by the 1780s, William Wilberforce, a member of Parliament and the nephew of one of Newton's friends in London, added his voice to this critique; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wilberforce was inspired by and felt that his own conversion paralleled Mr. Newton's, and upon Mr. Newton's encouragement used his money and influence to support abolition of the slave trade; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Newton continued to support the abolishment of slavery until it was finally passed by the House of Commons in 1804; and

WHEREAS, he spent the remainder of his life as a priest in Olney, working to help others find a deeper understanding and love through their faith; and

WHEREAS, "Amazing Grace" has since been recorded by various artists with strong connections to Tennessee, including Dolly Parton, Elvis Presley, Tennessee

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 9-4-210, is amended by deleting the section and substituting instead the following:

(a)

(1) For any law enacted after January 1, 2022, that results in a net increase in periods of imprisonment in state facilities, there must be appropriated from recurring revenues the estimated operating costs of the law.

(2) Appropriations made under subdivision (a)(1) must be used only for operating costs for the department of correction.

(3) Any law enacted without the funding required by subdivision (a)(1) is null and void unless such funding is appropriated in the general appropriations act.

(b) For any law enacted after January 1, 2022, that results in a net decrease in periods of imprisonment in state facilities, the appropriations in subsection (a) must be decreased by the estimated amounts annually that account for the estimated decrease in operating costs of the law. The annual decrease in appropriations required pursuant to this subsection (b) must be made in the general appropriations act as a line item reduction for the next ten (10) years commencing after the effective date of the law and in an amount equal to the annual estimated decrease in operating costs reflected in the fiscal note prepared pursuant to subsection (c).

(c) The amount of appropriations made under this section must be equal to the amounts reflected in fiscal notes prepared by the staff of the fiscal review committee. Cost increases must be estimated based on the operating costs, in current dollars, of the highest of the next ten (10) fiscal years commencing after

MONDAY, APRIL 5, 2021 – TWENTIETH LEGISLATIVE DAY

July 1, 2021. Cost decreases must be estimated based on actual estimated operating costs to be reduced.

(d) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Operating costs" means all variable costs of housing inmates in state facilities, or local facilities pursuant to title 41, chapter 8, other than capital outlay or capital maintenance costs and does not include any set costs for housing inmates in state or local facilities; and

(2) "Periods of imprisonment in state facilities" includes inmates housed by the state in local facilities pursuant to title 41, chapter 8.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it, and applies to appropriations made on or after January 1, 2022.

Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 188 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 62, Chapter 76, Part 1, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) As used in this section:

(1) "Honorably discharged veteran" means any person who has been honorably discharged from the army, navy, air force, marine corps, or coast guard, or any person who has been honorably discharged from a reserve component as defined in 10 U.S.C. § 10101, having performed active federal service in the armed forces of the United States;

(2) "Licensing authority" means a state board, agency, or commission, attached to the division of regulatory boards, as listed in § 4-3-1304(a), with the authority to impose training, education, or licensure fees to practice in an occupation regulated under this title; and

(3) "Member of the armed forces" means a member of the United States armed forces or a member of a reserve or Tennessee national guard unit who is in, or was called into, active service or active military service of the United States, as defined in § 58-1-102.

(b) Members of the United States armed forces and persons who are honorably discharged veterans are eligible to receive equivalent credit toward the receipt of an occupational license regulated under this title relating to the training received while serving in the armed forces if the training is consistent with requirements for licensure as determined by the applicable licensing authority. In order to receive credit in accordance with this subsection (b), the member of the armed forces or honorably discharged veteran must submit to the applicable licensing authority as evidence of training a certificate from:

(1) The United States department of defense; or

(2) The United States department of veterans affairs.

(c) Any person aggrieved by a decision of a licensing authority concerning eligibility for equivalent credit under this section may appeal to the commissioner of commerce and insurance, or the commissioner's designee, for a determination of whether the training meets the requirements for licensure. An appeal under this subsection (c) must be conducted in the same manner as is provided in § 4-5-322, for a contested case hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, compiled in title 4, chapter 5.

(d) The commissioner of commerce and insurance, in collaboration with the commissioner of veterans services, shall promulgate rules to effectuate this section. All rules must be promulgated in accordance with the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act.
